

Notice Regarding Acquisition of Dialysis RO Equipment Manufacturing Company in China

NIPRO CORPORATION is pleased to announce that Nipro Trading (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. (Head office: Shanghai, China; President: Akira Matsunoshita; hereinafter referred to as “Nipro Trading”)—a consolidated NIPRO subsidiary—has acquired Sichuan Pure Science and Technology Co., Ltd. (Head office: Sichuan, China; Representative: Li Shufeng; hereinafter referred to as “Sichuan Pure”), a manufacturer of dialysis RO equipment, as a consolidated subsidiary as of October 6, 2024.

1. Purpose of Acquisition

Nipro Trading acquired the dialysis RO equipment manufacturer Sichuan Pure to expand its hemodialysis business in the Chinese Market as part of the NIPRO Group’s efforts toward active promotion of the globalization of its medical device business. This acquisition will not only enhance Nipro Trading’s lineup of dialysis-related products but also further strengthen NIPRO’s presence in the growing Chinese Market and help capture a leading market share.
